This land, This life

This Labor Day weekend we'll explore the theme of work and leisure, across the human lifespan. We'll ask: what creates a sense of well-being? Of purpose? How about joy (as compared to happiness)? For our "gospel," we'll look to music legends Bruce Springsteen, Woody Guthrie, and more. Please be with us.

Worship Associate: Shirley LeMaster

Report on August PB&J for the Well

Tim Hill transported 20 jars peanut butter, 7 jars jelly, 4 loaves bread and bottled water to Well in the Desert, Palm Springs, to make peanut butter and jelly sandwiches and bottled water to persons living homeless in the Palm Springs area. Thanks to all who helped out!

September 1, Food on First for Oasis School

CVUSD students started the new school year Thursday, August 15. District Migrant Education maintains a healthy food pantry to serve these farmworker families, who will be stretching their budgets after buying new shoes and clothes and school supplies for their students. The Migrant Education pantry provides canned and packaged goods to stretch family food budgets, which frees up some funds to buy fresh items. Check all packages you donate to be sure they are not out of date.

Bring to 9/1 Sunday service or leave ahead in marked brown bin in UUCOD lobby. Most needed: 1) dry goods: corn masa flour (Maseca, Torti-Masa, etc.) for tortillas, bagged rice or dried pinto beans, small pasta or dry spaghetti; 2) cooking oil: vegetable, canola, or corn oil; 3) canned proteins: chicken, tuna or jars of peanut butter; 4) canned fruits and vegetables: all fruits, vegetables, tomatoes, tomato sauce, pasta sauce. Thanks!

Women's Night Out:

It's that time again, the 1st Thursday of the month is Women's Night Out! The upcoming one is scheduled for Thursday, September 5, at Las Casuelas Nuevas in Rancho Mirage. Address: 70050 Hwy 111. Parking is behind the restaurant.

Since there are Bridge players attending, we are changing the time to 5:00 pm. This also guarantees our getting the more private table (s) that we like at this very popular restaurant.

Please email me by Friday, Aug. 30, if possible to let me know if you can join us so that I can let the restaurant know an approximate number to plan for.

Remember: ALL UU women and guests are welcome!

September 8, Socks on the Second for Well in the Desert

Bring September 8 or leave ahead in the Well in the Desert brown bin in the UUCOD lobby. Bring new socks, darker colors very welcome. Well in the Desert Palm Springs distributes to local people living homeless. Your socks cushion footsteps during long treks on foot, provide a sense of comfort and dignity, and keep feet warm and dry. Due to limited space, socks only. For other items, please contact Well in the Desert or another charity and transport those items yourself. Thanks!

Every Sunday: Goods for asylum seekers

In triple digit heat, our own Leslie and Vikki drive supplies to Galilee's OLOG shelter in Mecca. Border Patrol here releases some asylees to travel in US to join relatives. They wait at OLOG for bus and plane tickets. They need toiletries and clothes in sizes for smaller adults (no large) and for children (list follows). Bring items to church and place on floor to right of lobby bins & mark FOR GALILEE FAMILIES.

Backpacks, shoelaces, diapers, babywipes, gently-used children's clothes (ask neighbors with kids), maxi-pads (no tampons), new underwear for women, men and children, socks, full-sized antiperspirant, lip balms, combs, razors, soap, soap case, travel-sized shampoo, toothpaste, toothbrushes with covers, and new or clean gently-used shoes, sweatshirts, sweaters or jackets.

Your Safety Committee is working hard to formulate a safety plan for us. This is a multifaceted project!! We invite anyone interested to check the webpage of the City of Rancho Mirage at <https://ranchomirage.ca.gov/>. Then click on Residents, then click on CERT Training. This training is the Basic Course.

The process is to complete the form with your email and name then submit. The City will post a list of attendees in October. If you want to attend, better complete the form as soon as possible.

DIRECTORY UPDATE - SUMMER 2019

We have an active congregation. Since the Annual Directory, we've gained new members and new friends, moved, and changed information. This directory is to let you know what is happening so you can communicate. On Sundays, at church, see Marion Ellson for your directory. Directories are only distributed to those are in the directory.

UUSC

Throughout August, Congress will be in recess, and members of the House and Senate will be back in their home districts to meet with their constituents. Some important and positive human rights legislation has recently passed the House but has stalled in the Senate. UUSC is focusing our energies on applying pressure there, where we have the potential to make significant change.

We are calling on people to schedule in-district visits with their senators during August 19 - 30 to share one of these demands:

- Defund abusive government agencies that are separating families and terrorizing communities
- Defend Temporary Protected Status (TPS) for migrants whose long-term legal status is at risk
- Condemn repression in Honduras by the U.S.-backed regime
- Ensure accountability in Burma for genocide and crimes against humanity

Now is a critical time to demand that our legislators take action in support of our fundamental values.

We encourage groups visiting their senators to focus on only one of these topics per visit so that you can be as impactful as possible. More details about each of our human rights demands can be found here, along with talking points that can also be printed as packets to leave behind at your senator's office.

Check out our UUSC Guide for Congressional In-District Visits for more information about how to schedule and plan a visit with your legislators, with guidance on how to make the most of your meeting.

In Solidarity,

Rev. Kathleen McTigue
Director of Activism and Justice Education
